Brown's
IRON BITTERS
THE BEST TONIC

Strengthens the Muscles, Stimulates the Nerves.

Enriches the Blood, Strengthens the New Vessels.
Dr. J. M. Myers, Fairfield, Long Island, has written to us that Dr. Brown's Iron Bitters have been especially beneficial in nervous diseases, and have been found to be of great service in all kinds of rheumatism, and in all kinds of neuralgia.

The Tribune says: "I am compelled to break down in health and strength, and I have been told by my physician that I must die if I do not take Brown's Iron Bitters entirely restored me to health."

UNITED STATES SENATE.

A BELIEF THAT IT WILL NOT BE POLITICALLY CHANGED.

Latest Private Telegrams to Cabinet Officers Indicate That the Fifteenth Congress Will Have a Republican Majority—Other News of the Election on Tuesday.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—It looks at present writing as if the elections of Tuesday might not have changed the composition of the United States Senate.

Eighteen members of the senate will leave on the expiration of their terms next March eleven Republicans and seven Democrats.

The Republicans are Daws, of Massachusetts;

Hawley, of Connecticut; Miller, of New York; Mitchell, of Pennsylvania;

Sewell, of New Jersey; Conger, of Michigan;

Harrison, of Indiana; Sawyer, of Wisconsin;

McMillan, of Maryland; and Weeks, and Williams, of California.

The Democrats are Gray, of Delaware;

Jones, of Florida; Peirce, of Nevada;

Thomson, of Tennessee; Maxey, of Texas;

Conrad, of Georgia; and Ayer, of Massachusetts.

It is evident, however, that many of these eighteen men have been thrown out of their seats by the election of Tuesday. Two are in doubt, and they are Republicans—Sewell, of New Jersey, and McMillan, of Minnesota.

Some of them, indeed, may not be returned.

If so, it appears that it will be of decided importance to know who are of the own party.

Private telegrams received by cabinet officers and others prominent in official life are such as to warrant the conclusion that the Fifteenth congress will likely be entirely through. There are some minor

Democrats at the congressional committee headquarters, who refuse to give up the house. They say it will yet come out Democratic.

It is conceded that Indiana will return to Senator Harrison, but the Republicans admit that they will lose a senator in New Jersey.

Congressman Morrison's Defeat.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—The defeat of Congressman Morrison, of Illinois, the leader of the Democracy in the house of representatives and the author of the resolutions of the ways and means, creates considerable surprise in Democratic circles, though he was unavailing, except to the suit the sub-treasurers, on the ground that they are receivers of stolen property, and that books published in the name of the copyright law are liable to forfeiture.

The fact that the implement directory has not been sold, but that on the payment of $15 the book is loaned to subscribers to be returned on the issue of a new edition, is relied upon to make effective the operation of the standard farm implements directory, containing names and ratings of implement dealers, seedmen and kindred trade. The papers in the suit allege that these names and ratings have been copied and simply classified, and that the same are used in the same manner as the original.

The story was created by him, his most intimate friends, but shortly after being placed in a cell Mr. Schaffter attempted to commit suicide, even those deserved him, and joined in a struggle of his own to sustain him, and caused the astonishment of everybody, and confirmed in the mind of the most charitable disposed person in the town the belief that Schaffter was a most thorough scoundrel.

The evidence of the cellar to get at stored depots of stolen goods, were all over again. One of the parkers said:

"We are not sure of anything except this:

Either Swift's men will be back or our men will be out to-night. It will be worse all around than last night for it will be longer.

Our men won't seem to be acting for a strike. The younger men, who have the least at stake, usually rule in such matters."

John Morley on the Irish Question.

OTTAWA, Ont., Nov. 5.—A year ago the Dominion parliament passed a bill abolishing postage on all newspapers going out from the office of publication. According to the postal treaty now enabled Canada to at the coming session of congress, which will meet the just expectations of the public.

They do not desire extreme measures, but they do desire the removal of positive obstructions to business of tax and no longer necessary in view of the interests of the country. If I were to be in the next congress, I would do my best to see that the Dominion government will act in accordance with the wishes of the people.

A Cincinnati Hotel Assignee.

sent to the hotel of Mr. W. H. Bissell,

HENRY MARSH arrived from Winchester, Ky., yesterday to make arrangements to begin the practice of his profession in this city about the first of next month.

MRS. JENNIE CLARKE will hold her first monthly art reception to-morrow from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., at her rooms in the rear of the Christian Church. All are cordially invited.

TRIAL proves that honesty is the best policy in medicine as well as in other things. Ayer's Sarsaparilla is a genuine preparation, an unequalled blood purifier, decidedly superior to all others.

DR. JOHN J. MALLOY, son of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Malloy, of the Germantown neighborhood, is now Home Surgeon of the New York Post-Graduate Medical School and Hospital. He is a close student and merits the honor he has received.

HUNDREDS of letters from those using Ayer's Hair Vigor attest its value as a restorer of gray hair to its natural color. As a stimulant and tonic, preventing and often curing baldness, and cleansing and soothing the scalp, its use cannot be too strongly recommended.

EVERY DAY brings fresh testimony of the superiority of Ballenger's Diamond spectacles over any others. A lady who had not been able, with many others, to see the eye of a needle for years, sees perfectly with the Diamond. Others, after a few weeks, are able to discontinue the use of spectacles entirely. For sale by Ballenger.

THE FRIENDS of Captain George Barkley and Mrs. Captain Power, of Aberdeen, will be gratified to learn that their brother, John L. Barkley, who was lately beaten up and robbed in Cincinnati, is improving, physically and mentally. The physician is in hope that he will shortly be in a condition to give an intelligent account of his strange adventure.

TUG CITIZENS' Coal Company has just received a fresh supply of coal. The following named gentlemen are the authorized agents of the company, and all orders left with them will receive prompt attention: James Redmond, Jr., West Second street; Hugh Shannon, corner Fourth and Plum; W. H. Wallingford, Fifth ward, opposite Hall's playhouse. 6dpm J. HAMILTON, Agent.

MASON, MUNDAY & CO. have secured a contract for grading part of the extension of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad running from Corbin, Laurel County, Ky., to the Cumberland Gap, and will commence work in a short time. Captain J. A. Munday has gone to Corbin to take charge of the work. The same firm will finish their contract on the Mayville and Big Sandy Railroad about the last of December. They have the grading and bridge work from the mouth of Lawrence Creek west to a point two and one-half miles below Dover.

Court of Claims.

Judge William P. Coons has called a special meeting of the Magistrates of Mason County to be held next Tuesday, to consider a proposition of the Kentucky Central Railroad Company to compromise the back taxes due for the years 1883, 1884, 1885. A full attendance of the Magistrates is desired.

Council Proceedings.

City Council met in regular session last evening.

Minutes of last meeting read and approved.

Reports of various city officers were read and received.

The fines assessed by the Mayor for the past month amounted to $152, of which $112 had been paid and worked out; $13 had been reprieved and the balance was being worked out.

The fines and old bonds collected by City Marshal amounted to $215; taxes collected, $404.38, making $710.38 as total amount of Marshal's collections for the month.

Wharfmaster C. M. Phister reported wharfage for the month at $285.

City Treasurer reported $215.92 as the amount of cash on hand and in bank in general fund; white school fund, cash on hand and in bank, $50.17; colored school fund, $29.96.

Claims and accounts amounting to $388.02 were allowed and ordered paid. The master of repairs to stone flagging and pavements, and street railway was continued in hands of Marshal.

Treasurer was given further time to collect the McCune note.

The question of grading Forest avenue and West Third street was continued in hands of proper committee.

The cost of grading Strawberry Alley was reported and placed in hands of Marshal for collection.

Committee on Gas gave further time to have trees near gas lamps trimmed.

Progress was reported on repairs to gutters and the matter was continued.

Dr. C. W. Wardle was granted permission to erect a swinging sign at Zweigert's Block, Second Street.

F. W. Schaefer's hotel license was transferred to M. E. McKellip.

Proposition of G. W. Blatterman, Jr., for furnishing granite blocks for guitars was referred to Committee on Internal Improvements.

It was ordered that telephone company be instructed to remove poles. The telegraph poles not in use were ordered removed, also.

Committee on Propositions and Grievances recommended that J. F. Robinson abate the nuisance caused by smoke from cooper shop by erecting a chimney or smoke stack. Report adopted.

An ordinance was introduced and referred to Committee on Laws, making it unlawful for persons to loaf or loiter about the depot or grounds of any railroad in this city, or to congregate upon the platform of any depot without special reasons for doing same. The ordinance fixes a penalty of a fine of not less than $5 nor more than $10, for violation of same.

THE MOST DIFFICULT surgical operation that has ever been performed in this city was that upon Ralph Moore, little son of Captain Enos B. Moore, last week. The little boy was afflicted with a very severe case of croup, and his life was despaired of. Dr. E. S. Ricketts consulted with Dr. Cotton C. Kline and Dr. McKerrell as to the last resort, and the course to pursue to save the life of the child. It was decided to perform an operation upon the child, which was done. Tubes were run into the wind pipe, and although he was hanging on by a single strand of life, the operation proved to be successful and the child is slowly but surely convalescing.

THIS IS A CASE of sickness in which death would have shortly resulted, had it not been for the skillful operation of the physicians.—Portsmouth Times.

Notices.

MR. JOHN AUGENBOWER, of Ripley, and Miss Emma Etel, of Covington, who were here to attend the marriage of Mr. George Etel, returned to their homes Wednesday.

GREEN KELLAR, of the Carlisle Mercury, came down yesterday to condole with the Democrats of Mason over the result of the election. If the Democracy of other counties had done as well as Brother Keller, the cocks would be crowing to-day instead of the eagles screaming.

TO HIS OWN MELINDA.

The Fidelity of the Man Who Claims to Be the Best Rifle Shot in the Kentucky Mountains—The Object of His Love Now Languishing in the Louisville Jail.

LOUISVILLE, Nov. 5.—For the past two weeks a young man warmly wrapped in a heavy overcoat, has occupied a beer keg in front of a saloon opposite the jail between 9 o'clock in the morning and dark. Rain or shine the man was in his place on the keg. Occasionally the silent watch raised a handkerchief and waved it in front of his face. A handkerchief would then appear from a window of the jail, which was occupied by the young man's companion, evidence of an answering signal. Invariably the young man would then cross the street and take a stand under the window. In a few moments a note might be seen fluttering down from the window, and the young man would then retire to his keg and eagerly peruse the scrap of paper, which was the way his sweetheart, confined in the jail for misbehaving, took to him in the first place, though he had been told that she was not strong enough to write them when she was still true.

Last Friday night a timid rattle at the big jail doors attracted the attention of Chief Turnkey Ragland. The young man, whom every official at the jail had been watching, stepped forward and said: "I am here, Sir, as timid as his rattle, asked to have a few words with the turnkey. Mr. Ragland took him into one of the offices and heard his story. He gave his name as Charley Crow and said that he had been separated from his wife, and asked the turnkey's assistance in arranging and carrying out his plans. This the turnkey consented to give and also allowed the young lady to come down in the main hall and speak with him. She had been sent in to him in silence. They stayed together clasped in each other's arms for three hours. Each night has the visit been repeated, and during the day Crow has occupied his seat in front of the saloon watching the jail across, where every now and then a sight of his Melinda could be obtained.

Miss Melinda Meyers is one of the handsomest women ever confined in the Jefferson county jail. Her hair is eighteen inches long, the little town of Pineville, in Bell county. She was arrested October 10 by a deputy United States marshal in Pineville for retailing whisky without a license. The warrant was made out on the testimony of her son, a young boy, age ten, who was the son of William Stevens. The young man was a lover of Melinda, but she threw him over for Crow, the best rifle shot in the Kentucky mountains. She says that in order to take revenge on her for not marrying him, he often went down to the saloon for a glass of distilled mountain dew. She took the quarter and was arrested. Miss Meyers was brought to Louisville and put in jail with about 200 other prisoners charged with violating the internal revenue law. Her case was taken up by the defense attorney of Judge Barr October 4. She pleaded guilty, and was sentenced to pay a fine of $50 and to serve sixty days in jail. The fine was paid by her prospective husband, and she has been released.

When Miss Meyers was first arrested young Crow came to Louisville and put up at the Astor House, so as to be near his jailer, the prison cell. When he arrived in Louisville, Crow was the typical Kentucky boy. He had never been in a saloon, nor a bar, nor had he ever heard his almost boyish features. He discarded the homespun, shaved his beard, and, with the exception of the hair, is as well dressed as any of the young men of the city. He is twenty-one years old, age, and appears to be in the middle of the world's count. He has known Miss Meyers for several years. Both people declare themselves to be much in love to wait until her sentence expires and therefore they will be married as soon as possible after her release.

Turnkey Ragland has taken charge of the master and will see that the young couple's wishes are carried out. He will procure the license and will have a magistrate on hand to tie the knot. The newspaper reporters and turnkeys at the jail are all witnesses. After a wedding a dinner will be had by Jailer Bailey. Plates will be laid for twelve people, who have been specially invited to banquet with Mr. and Mrs. Crow. The original plan was to place the bride and bridegroom in the ballroom, but the girl objected to the number of men, so mutual moonshiners will be let into the main corridor of the jail after the supper. Two fiddle playing prisoners will furnish the music, the sawdust will be swept from the floor, and the bride and bridegroom will remain until 10 o'clock. The sight will be looked forward to with much pleasure by the respectable prisoners in the jail. There are thirteen female prisoners and 160 male ones who will be present to witness the marriage. It is thought that every woman in the ballroom will be a belle. A few of the women are charged with malicious cutting, one with being an accessory to murder, two with robbery, and the rest United States prisoners. Mr. and Mrs. Crow will be the bride and groom to all county and enjoy their honeymoon after December 4, when their time expires.

THE ASTOR HOUSE CHEF WILL LIVE,

Shot on a Police Honor by the Waiter
Who Committed Suicide.

New York, Nov. 5.—John George Burns, the French chef of the Astor house, who was found on Monday night by Joseph Ott, a waiter, who afterward killed himself, will probably get well. He is now in the Chambers Street hospital. Ott was forty-nine years old, and came here in 1880. He was formerly a waiter at the Gilsey house. He lived at 240 East Thirty-fourth street with his brother. He was usually quiet and courteous. Ott's condition is good; the water had been insulted by the chef, and that the latter had refused to apologize.

"If you do not apologize," Ott is reported to have said to the chef, "you will be sorry for it." I will give you a chance to say two words, and you are sorry for what you said. You have a family, and I don't want to do you harm; but you must apologize." Ott will be buried in Greenwood. The funeral will be from 106 Greenwich street.

Fought to a Draw.

BOSTON, Nov. 5.—Under the auspices of a committee of the city's citizens, Frank Burns, the young East End blacksmith, who recently defeated Joe Muller, the English pugilist, in ten seconds, and Billy Gibbons, of Philadelphia, fought seven rounds to draw last evening under fair play rules. Burns got rather the better of the contest.
